ON THE ROAD To The Title

LIONS DEVOUR EAGLES IN SATURDAY SCORCHER

BONNYRIGG WHITE EAGLES 2 BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS 5

Bankstown's new Bosnian-born coach Sakib Lovic promised before the game with Premiers Bonnyrigg White Eagles that his team would entertain, but would set out, chiefly, to demolish their opponents on Saturday night and they returned to the sheds after a splendid performance having carrying out his instructions to the letter.

A somewhat flat Bonnyrigg side, perhaps understandably subdued by a tragedy at the club the previous evening which claimed the life of a young child, never matched strides with the new look Bankstown long enough to look like taking control of the game.

They found themselves a goal down inside twenty minutes when the mercurial Zoki Adioski blasted a free kick from 30 yards past Mladen Kos and into the bottom left corner of the net.

It had already been all Bankstown up to that point and the goal was no more than they deserved.

Nabil Codmani and Mile Todorovski had combined to set up Adioski in the 6th minute, but he delayed his shot too long. Colin Luff, at the other end, had a chance but fired across the face of goal after a swift counter attack in the 12th.

Kos called for a pass from a defender in the 35th and could only watch as Adioski intercepted and skipped past him only to find the side netting.

Codmani and Todorovski again were instrumental as Bankstown extended their lead in the 42nd minute. Robbie Issa was the beneficiary as he was able to steer a low shot in off a deflection past the stranded Kos.

Issa also found the side netting on the stroke of half time.

Bonnyrigg looked immediately more purposeful after resuming and quickly posted their first goal as Robbie Gomez showed a clean pair of heels to the Lions defenders to go on and chip Kos very nicely.

A very smart piece of team build up with Todoroski providing the final magic touch saw Adioski re-establish Bankstown's two goal cushion in the 52nd, which could have been one more in the 66th, but Issa cracked the underside of the bar from close range when a goal looked certain.

After a break by Bonnyrigg ended with an unceremonious dumping of Gomez by Damien Luksic in the 71st the latter was sent off after receiving his second caution. From the resultant free kick was despatched with precision by Paul Richardson from the edge of the box to find Leo Premutico beaten again at the top left corner of the net.

Undaunted Bankstown continued to go forward and were soon in front by two again. A free kick won out deep on the left was floated to the far right post where Adioski arrived with plenty of time to spare and volleyed first time past Kos from only a few yards out.

Issa had another chance in the 76th which he again put wide then three minutes later Adioski got on the end of a through pass from Todorovski to hit a slashing drive past Kos for the fifth.

Bonnyrigg's best player, James Warburton, smacked the frame of the goal in stoppage time after the ball had been cut back by Danny Poljak. But the close shave summed up Bonnyrigg's day.

Bonnyrigg: Kos, Xuereb, Crnokrak, Richardson, Mancino (Vulic 77), Harding (Racker 43), Luff, Ghisso (Poljak 55), Nielson, Gomez, Warburton

Best for Bonnyrigg: James Warburton

Best for Bankstown: Zoki Adioski

RAMS POWER PAST COAST IN SEASON OPENER

MACARTHUR RAMS 4 CENTRAL COAST 1

Macarthur made short work of Central Coast at a sun soaked Lynwood Park on Saturday evening, chalking up three goal inside the first 32 minutes to have the Coasties on the back foot for much of the game.

Two of last season's best prospects combined to get the Rams' noses in front after 18 minutes. David Reid pushed a nice pass through to Trevor Whiddett and the youngster slotted the ball calmly past the helpless Steve Angelov.

Whiddett turned provider three minutes later with another ball through the centre this time for new man Iain McDonald to run onto and steer beyond the keeper.

McDonald was in good form in his Macarthur debut and drove a firm shot towards goal in the 32nd minute which Angelo did well to palm away, but Whiddett, following up, pounced and smashed the ball into the net.

Shots from McDonald again in the 40th and from Eric Williams in the 41st were just off target as The Rams began to dominate their opponents late in the half. A 35 yard blast by Reid was tipped over the bar by Angelov in the 42nd to illustrate the work load on the Coasties' new keeper.

Reid sent Whiddett on his way to goal in the 47th minute and from the chipped pass, McDonald was able to find the net with a glancing header.

Macarthur continued to dominate and went close several times towards the end, but both former Coast player Shane Knight and Whiddett missed the target.

Coast got their only goal in the 85th when Nathan Byrn strode clear of the defence to then go around John Crawley and poke the ball home.

It was little consolation for the visitors who were best served by their keeper and by Mark Drysdale. Peter Preston, himself a former Ram, was well taken care of by the capable Macarthur defence.

Macarthur Rams: Crawley, Willard, Lloyd, Cerjak (Judge), (Cevenini), Macerola, D. Reid, Rastell, Williams, McDonald, Whiddett

Scorers: Macarthur: Trevor Whiddett 18,32, Ian McDonald 21,47 Central Coast: Nathan Byrn 85

Best for Macarthur: Trevor Whiddett

Best for Central Coast: Mark Drysdale

DEMONS WEAR DOWN THE WANDERERS

BLACKTOWN CITY 2 EASTERN SUBURBS 0

Late signing Jason Bennett capped his debut performance for Blacktown with an 87th minute goal, to enter an elite group of players who have scored on their first appearance in a Demons' shirt over many years.

Stars like Bobby Charlton, Kevin Keegan as guests and regular team members such as Robbie Slater and Lawrie McKinna have done it and now so has Bennett, who transferred from Saturday night's opponents, Eastern Suburbs in an eleventh hour move.

Bennett nearly didn't make it as he had looked set to retire, but the 29 year old former Newcastle Breakers' star had a rethink and was part of a three man strike force which gave Easts plenty of work for most of the game. For a long time it looked as if Bennett was not going to make the privileged list, as he was profligate in his finishing, especially in the first half.

His partners up front fared no better early on, Stuart Cleary smacking a shot against the bar in the 11th after Bennett had screwed his own shot wide in the opening minute of the game.

Bennett also skied a shot over the bar after a Damien Foxe shot had been blocked, following a nice flick on by Steve Riches in the 17th.

There were a few chances for Easts, notably when a mix up allowed Naoki Imaya to nip in and have a free header in the 21st, but it was directed over the bar.

Easts suffered a setback when Adam Mark, their new first grade keeper, who had just won a spot after waiting in the wings for some time, had to be replaced at half time due to breaking the metacarpal bone in his hand in a challenge with Matthew Lowe. His replacement Con Anastasiadis made a steady showing in the second half, but conceded two late goals as the Demons finally broke the deadlock.

The breakthrough came after a solid defensive effort by Easts had seen them go close in a few counter attacking moves, the most crucial being in the 59th when the speedy Peter Pullicino won the ball from Brown and then sent a good pass through for Mark Beldham who steered the ball wide.

Easts were punished for not clearing their lines in the 79th after a ball had been sent into the area and found Damien Smith lurking out on the edges of the penalty area. Smith was able to hit a powerful shot past the keeper after steadying.

Blacktown then had a number of further chances until Bennett entered the annals of fame with a simple finish to a move participated in by John Angelucci, Brown and Cleary .

Easts were well served by stand in stopper Steve Lawrence, defender Tony Canning and Yavos Ekinci, while Blacktown were solid throughout and despite earlier misses, Bennett will remember his first appearance as a Demon with relish.

Eastern Suburbs: Mark (Anastasiadis 46), Canning, Nichols, Lawrence, Sevares (Darvill 76), Sydut (Ogmen 81), Ekinci, Ihaya, McCombe, Pullicino, Beldham

Scorers: Damien Brown 79 Jason Bennett 87

Best for Blacktown City: Jason Bennett

Best for Eastern Suburbs: Steve Lawrence

Referee: Alex Spiroski

Yellow Cards: Aaron Holst 17 (Blacktown), M Nichols 27 and Steve Lawrence 37 (Easts)

BULLS WIN SUPER LEAGUE DEBUT MATCH

RYDE CITY 1 FAIRFIELD BULLS 3

Paul Goodwin was at Wentworth Park.....

Ryde's return to the Glebe ground was not a happy one as they were first forced to play at 3 pm, which was mitigated by a southerly breeze which got up an hour before the game, then found old foes Fairfield too fast in the swirling conditions.

The Gunners defence, in truth, had no real answer to the speed of new Bulls' spearhead Marc Hoenselaars and ex Ryde striker Matthew Borg.

Bonnyrigg and Bankstwon fight for the ball.

Time and again this pair exposed the experienced, but sluggish home defence, Borg only ruing an abundance of offside decisions against him and an unwillingness to chance his luck with shots of his own when clear on goal.

Borg did score one and set up his partner for the other, so would have been happy with his performance against his previous club.

Fairfield took the lead in the 17th minute from a well hit free kick by Sal

Larocca from a very tight angle and on the ground he played at with Easts for several seasons it was surprising that Les Bihari was caught out at his near post as he seemed to be expecting a cross.

Scott Ollerenshaw was making some good runs for Ryde and from a 20th minute move he got the ball across to Rob Portelli whose header Dragan Pupovac could only palm away to Jeff Kelly who slammed the loose ball into the roof of the net from close range.

When Borg raced away for the first of many big runs at the Ryde defence in the 23rd his cross was headed squarely against the bar by Hoenselaars, with the goal at his mercy. The Bulls' new combination was very effective and could have had many more goals with better finishing.

>From a Ryde corner in the 29th a ball as fed to Borg who was able to give Paul Watkins the slip and set off for goal, eventually angling the ball past Bihari from wide on the right to re-establish the Fairfield lead.

In the second half Ryde went close in the 64th when a corner was nodded on by Craig Moffit and then headed towards goal by Ollerenshaw where it was cleared off the line.

A quick Fairfield throw out on the right touchline in the 68th saw Borg cross the ball smartly for Hoenselaars to head easily past Bihari at the far post.

Ryde's only other chance was a Nils Johnsson shot which was nicely tipped over by Pupovac in a period when Ryde won more than half a dozen corners, yet had nothing to show for it.

The absence of John Koch, Jason Lal and Adam Petey, all injured, may not have helped Ryde in their cause, but The Bulls can point to the absence also of a few players yet to reach match fitness, such as Darren Iocca and Jeff Suzor.

Craig Sharpley hardly put a foot wrong all day for Ryde and Huseyin Vardar made a strong showing on debut for Ryde. The new backline for Fairfield passed the test as well and the unit should prove well up to the mark this year.

Ryde City: Bihari, Johnsson, Segreto (Cetinay 75), Cowley, Moffit, Watkins (Nicol 70), Kelly (Glucina 64), Ollerenshaw, Vardar, Sharpley, Portelli

Fairfield Bulls: Pupovac, M. Driene, Mandic, Grubba, Zabetakis, Larocca, Treharne, Vrankovic, Hoenselaars, Borg, Bourke (locca 75)
Scorers: Ryde City: Kelly 20, Fairfield: Larocca 17, Borg 29, Hoenselaars 68
Best for Ryde City: Craig Sharpley
Best for Fairfield Bulls: Marc Hoenselaars
Referee: Nick Asargiotis
Yellow Cards: Nils Johnsson (Ryde) 71, Vrankovic (Fairfield) 57

LATE EQUALISER GETS BERRIES OFF THE HOOK

CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE 1 SUTHERLAND SHARKS 1

Peter Smith was at Henson Park.....

A lacklustre first half which produced little more than a scrappy show of strength developed into a much more lively affair after the break.

Sutherland were holding Canterbury well, despite the home side being marginally on top, but survived a number of close calls as the game wore on and the Berries were desperately unlucky not to score first.

A searing volley from 25 yards out by Talcevski smashed against the Henson Park crossbar in the 63rd minute, as Canterbury began to get right on top.

The Sharks, it was, however, who took the lead in the 70th when Craig Hobbs got on the end of a Levi Stephen pass, threaded through to him out wide on the left, after Malcolm Bideau had won a big tackle in the middle of the park

After this setback Canterbury launched a blistering assault on the Sutherland goal which they withstood until the fifth minute of stoppage time.

Steve Christoforidis, an early second half substitute, was most prominent, finding the bar with a sweetly struck volley in the 74th and then seeing is goalbound shot turned around the post by Dennis Olla in the 81st.

The pressure was intense as the clock wound down and with Sutherland officials pleading for the final whistle to be blown by John Bowdler, Angelo Markopoulos at last found a way through the seemingly impregnable Sharks defence with a fierce low drive from a tight angle out on the right , from just inside the box, the ball beating Olla as it sped into the far corner of the net.

The Berries' players barely had time to celebrate the goal when the final whistle blew at last, leaving Canterbury relieved at snatching a point they deserved, but did not look like getting until the dying seconds.

Canterbury: Tolios, M Raeburn, Palapanis, Mendes, Percy, Talcevski, Bosevski, Fedele (Wells), Nikas, Angelo Markopoulos, Kategiannis (Christoforidis 53)
Sutherland: Olla, Daley, Harris, M. Richardson, Summers, Bideau, Giraldo, Hobbs, Corbo (Stephen 60), Pillay, Podesta
Scorers: Canterbury: Angelo Markopoulos 90 Sutherland: Craig Hobbs 70
Best for Canterbury: Steve Christoforidis
Best for Sutherland: Malcolm Bideau
Referee: John Bowdler
Yellow Cards: Jason Wells, Jim Nikas (Canterbury), Malcolm Bideau, Eduardo Giraldo, Jeff Summers, Jimmy Corbo (Sutherland)

TIGHT CONTEST FOR TIGERS AT LAMBERT PARK

LEICHHARDT TIGERS 0 PARRAMATTA EAGLES 0

Tony Dunn was at Lambert Park.....

Leichhardt Tigers will have to be patient with their new look front line which was unable to breach the tight Parramatta Eagles defence and the home side had to settle for a point in the only scoreless game of the round.

In many ways the Tigers were on top for much of the game and the new Parramatta pairing of Grant Bard and Alex Araujo never really got going.

It was newcomer Chris Lansdowne, a former Macarthur player who last year languished in the Third Division with Camden Tigers, who made the biggest impression of all the front runners and running was certainly his strength.

Swapping one Tigers shirt for another the new Leichhardt striker set up a good chance for his side in the early stages when his cross was palmed away by Holmes and John Pillemer, following up, could only blaze the ball over the bar from 2 yards.

Pillemer also hit the post in the second half and had another shot saved after heading on a Lansdowne cross.

The speed of Landowne and another new signing Hassan Kdouh was trouble for the Eagles who had Andrew Dowling and Paul O'Grady in good form at the back as well as keeper Holmes steadying them throughout.

Leichhardt skipper Eric Hristodoulou played well as did Fabio Macolino, while another new man, striker Sarkis Boudaher, limped off early in the second half with a strained hamstring.

Parramatta Eagles: Holmes, Utjesenovic, O'Grady, Dowling, Evan, Boskovski, Araujo (M Meilak 80), Olic, Bard, Mittiga, Islas
Best for Leichhardt: Eric Hristodoulou
Best for Parramatta: Jason Holmes
Referee: Nick Conditsis
Yellow Cards: Frank Mikuletic 85, Hassan Kdouh 75, Fabio Macolino 60 (Leichhardt), Sasha Utjesenovic 70, Andrew Dowling 85, Alex Mittiga 62 (Parramatta)

ROUND TWO PREVIEW

MACARTHUR RAMS v BLACKTOWN CITY DEMONS - Lynwood Park Saturday 7.00

Rams coach Casey de Bruin was once associated with the Demons and would love to put another one over the north west Sydney team. Travelling north to face the foe, Macarthur will be up against a formidable outfit and can expect few favours at The Gabbie.

The first round success will mean little for these two sides who are going to appreciate the later kick-off in this summer heat.

Macarthur had a great crowd at the game and will expect even more for this one, as many of the Demons' fans should make the easy Saturday night trip. The Rams will be keen to see the return of injured Jim Aschner and Graeme Watton, both important signings during the off season.

Blacktown have a three pronged attack and it will be interesting to see if their new coach sticks with this approach for the away game.

A hard game to forecast, but the home team are very strong and should just about prevail.

SUTHERLAND SHARKS v CENTRAL COAST - Seymour Shaw Park Saturday 7.00

Having met pre-season on the Coast and drawn 1-1 there is a fair chance that this game will be equally hard fought and close.

Coast suffered a setback in their tough opener, but this is a different proposition and we should see a very good contest.

Sutherland are looking good for a side which was decimated at the end of last season.

Their difficulty will be in supplying Craig Hobbs with the right opportunities to continue his good start to the season.

The Coasties are still feeling their way and with five away games to start the season it could be a little while before they start their climb up the ladder. A win here is not beyond them, but a lot will depend on how Peter Preston copes with a well drilled Sharks defence.

BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS v CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE - Jensen Park Sunday 5.00

This local derby brings together two attractive teams who love to entertain Bankstown were jubilant after their big win at Bonnyrigg and Berries' coach John Xipolitas was there to see the match and would have been impressed by the passing game of the Lions who have Zoki Adioski back to the form he showed in the National League with St George a few years ago.

The lively Canterbury attack may prove a handful for Bankstown, but they may not get a look in if the home side's highly confident strikers get going as they did in Round One.

We can see another good Bankstown win coming up here.

EASTERN SUBURBS v LEICHHARDT TIGERS - Wentworth Park Sunday 5.00

A good tight game is in prospect

Easts held Blacktown out for most of the game at The Gabbie last weekend and almost snatched a winner in the second half so will be a very awkward opponent for theTigers.

Steve Lawrence slotted into a defensive role with ease last week and could also figure in attack depending on how the game pans out.

Easts coach John Calleja may well give new recruit Unal Ogmen a start in this game and retain the seasoned campaigner Steve Lawrence in a stopper's role.

The wide runners from Easts will probably be able to give a man like Ogmen good service and should blend well with the former Auburn player.

Leichhardt are going to take a while to warm up and the new duo of Sarkis Boudaher, sanpped up from Blacktown last week, and Chris Lansdowne may not be quite ready to fire just yet. Still, the wide open spaces of Wentworth Park should suit the pair and they will need to be watched closely.

Easts could hold on for a draw this time.

FAIRFIELD BULLS v BONNYRIGG WHITE EAGLES - Nineveh Field Sunday 6.00

These two clubs are only a kilometre or so apart and have an equally close respect for one another.

The White Eagles will be much better motivated this time and must win this to get their season under way.

Fairfield may have won at Ryde on Sunday, but they are going to meet a side with something to prove on the more cramped Nineveh Field surface which is looking a picture this season after being completely relaid during the summer.

John Turner expects to have chicken pox victim Paul Dee back in the starting line up and should also bring in Roman Nikolic and Mark Racker to produce his best eleven for this important derby match.

The Bulls could have Jeff Suzor ready to resume after delaying his return to the club until recently and his run in the reserves last weekend would have topped him off nicely.

Of the two sides Fairfield look the stronger in defence at the moment, but this game does appeal as one in which many goals can be scored.

Once again Bonnyrigg may be disappointed, though a high scoring draw might not be the end of the world for them.

PARRAMATTA EAGLES v RYDE CITY GUNNERS - Melita Stadium Sunday 7 pm

What can Parramatta fans expect from their team this year? They have a first home game against one of the less fancied sides this weekend, yet they will need to produce a resounding win to satisfy their demanding fans at Melita Stadium on Sunday..

Ryde put up a fairly ordinary performance against Fairfield to begin their season on a disappointing note, but coach Les de Celis was quick to praise the visitors and would not offer as an excuse the absence from his side of a number of regulars, like John Koch and Adam Petey, or newcomer Jason Lal. Of this trio only Petey may be ready to resume this week, as the other pair picked up minor injuries in the last ten days or so. They could be joined on the sidelines by Jeff Kelly, who hobbled off, and Chris Cowley who had a facial injury.

Parramatta are generally very hard to beat at home and have an excellent defence which enabled them to thwart Leichhardt Tigers last week. It's hard to see Ryde getting anything out of this game, but soccer can produce upsets.

OLLERENSHAW SURPRISE INCLUSION IN RYDE CITY GUNNERS LINE-UP

The surprise news from Wentworth Park on Sunday was that former Socceroo and long time Malaysian-based speedster Scott Ollerenshaw was turning out for Ryde City in the opening round of this year's Super League against Fairfield Bulls.

Many, Ollerenshaw included, thought that the player's career was over after he tore up his contract with Northern Spirit just before Christmas when an ankle injury he had been operated on for, some time ago, did not look like healing properly.

Having earned his living from the game he loves for most of the last decade, the despondent red-headed player could not even cope with watching the Spirit play, so great was his frustration at being sidelined.

Scott wondered if he should join friends in the United States who had told him about coaching possibilities over there and who had encouraged him to join them and with his Malaysian-born wife, Michelle and a very young son to consider, there was really nothing to stop him moving there if he was no longer able to compete in Asia due to a recent change in the foreign player rules.

A few weeks ago, clutching at straws perhaps, the mild-mannered Ollerenshaw elected to try something he had long been wary of; acupuncture.

The thought of half an hour of every Thursday night spent having needles stuck into him was something he had not been looking forward to, but he noticed an immediate easing of his pain as soon as the treatment began and elected to extend the process to other problem areas such as a niggling groin strain and trouble with his back.

It seems that in trying to speed recovery in the past, from the long term ankle injury, cortisone injections had been used and these merely masked the problems, which were discovered more fully with the initial arthroscopic surgery.

Once it became apparent how serious the injury was, that had been causing Ollerenshaw so much grief, the surgeons got to work. Much damage had been done by the player continuing on with his games under his painful handicap until he could no longer endure the torment.

Before the injury and subsequent course of remedial treatment the Aussie international had been at the peak of his powers enjoying immense success in the steamy Asian soccer scene, playing in front of huge crowds most of the time.

Four good years at Saba, the club he joined when first leaving Australia, including a game against Manchester United in front of over 60,000 spectators, turned sour when he linked with Negeri Sembilan last year. Clearly the injury affected his form.

With the operation behind him and a contract with his last club still current, the former St George and Australia man could only sign until December with Northern Spirit.

Not having kicked a ball since signing on for Sydney's newest club and the most successful club ever to debut in the National League, it was a very vexing time and the idea of making a permanent arrangement with the North shore club evaporated as the half way mark was reached.

Instead, reluctantly, and after an amicable talk to Spirit coach and ex Socceroo colleague Graham Arnold, 'Ollie' thought it best not to be a burden on the new club and discontinued his contract.

At thirty this looked to be the end for the lad with the Lancashire name and he barely gave it a thought, apart from accepting the generous nature of the gift, when a voucher was presented to him for Christmas entitling him to a course of acupuncture treatment.

Gritting his teeth and not wanting to look a gift horse in the mouth he made the journey to the 'needle doctor' and had another go at getting fit.

He began training again and only managed 50 minutes the first time, but built it up and with the pain being eased considerably asked his surgeon for advice on playing again, albeit at a different level.

He was given the all clear to play, with certain provisos, including continuing the acupuncture treatment each week and no pounding the streets for three months at least.

His long years at St George and many friendships made in soccer there as well at high profile clubs like Sydney Olympic, Apia Leichhardt and Wollongong Wolves meant that when told of Ryde's need for further players he decided that this might be the club to ease himself back in again.

There he joins Craig Moffitt, John Koch, Craig Sharpley and the Gunners' new assistant coach Richard Miranda, all former team mates of the 'red terror'

After a couple of weeks with the lads he feels he is ready to have another go and who knows, he may yet take up that Spirit contract before his playing days are over.

Having just passed the 30 mark, he feels he has a few good years left yet, once fully fit and with the encouragement of Malaysian born-wife, Michelle, a black belt karate expert who was 5th in the world in 1994 and 2nd in Asia the same year, Scott may have shaken off the woes of a very frustrating 1998 to see a New Year of much better fortune for him and his young family, which includes the couple's first child, a young son.

Scott Ollerenshaw's presence in the line-up itself should boost Ryde's stocks and bring in new supporters for a side which is looking much stronger this year after a standstill debut season.

HURSTVILLE MINOTAURS GO FOR YOUTH AS PLAYERS LEAVE THE FOLD

It could be a tough old year for the usually strong Hurstville City Minotaurs this season as the club has been unable to hold onto most of their top players who have been lured away by attractive offers from elsewhere.

St George appear to be the main beneficiary, with no fewer than four ex Minotaurs signing on for Paul Carter's team.

Louis Dounis had a lean year last term, but an operation and other absences meant he was not a regular in the side. George Kalogeras, Tom Pontidas and Peter Papoythis are the others who form a quartet of players who are all around the thirty mark and will bring vast experience to the Saints line-up.

Meanwhile John Manalopoulos has linked with Rockdale and George Zabetakis with Fairfield Bulls.

Hurstville coach, 'the general' Peter Sarikakis sees this as a good chance to bring on the youngsters like Spiro Kladis, Nick Andreou and Eric Vassiliadis. Captain again will be Sam Panagakis, with John Mylonas returning in goal after most of last season out of action.

Peter Spais is hoping to make a comeback after a nasty injury some two years ago and a number of former Canterbury Marrickville players have taken their chance at first team football with the club.

JINKY JOE HAS GONE WEST YOUNG MAN

After years of playing and coaching on Sydney's Eastern seaboard, former Socceroo Joe Watson has gone troppo. Well, gone west at any rate, to the newly promoted Fairfield Bulls.

The club has a degree of confidence about the new season, but Watson is cautious and feels that it will be a while before we see the best of the Bulls this season.

Top goalkeeper Brett Hughes had agreed to join the Bulls some time back, but had not signed and when an offer came from Marconi to fill the position left due to the serious injury suffered by Ante Covic, Joe knew that he could not stand in Brett's way.

"He may still come back to us, said Watson, but I have signed a very good replacement in Dragan Pupovac who at 31 is still at the peak of his career."

"Young Sean Cahill will still push Dragan all the way as he was likely to give Hughes some competition before he left," Watson went on.

The club has appointed the very capable midfielder Martin Driene as captain this year, after the player was secured from First Division Moorebank. There should still be a place for popular defender Robbie Grubba in the starting line up, the big, likeable blond club man being at last able to make the step up to the higher grade.

Nick Mandic, the former Sydney United youth team defender, who played at Eastern Suburbs last year, has moved to Fairfield as well, having missed most of last season due to injury.

Watson saw enough in the few games he played to know he would figure prominently in his plans this year. His rock solid performance in an impromptu trial with Northern Spirit, back in September, convinced him of his real worth.

The wily Scotsman saw a very promising Sam La Rocca at the age of 16 while coaching briefly at Leichhardt a few years ago and gave him a chance in first grade at Lambert Park with pleasing results, making a fine debut versus Bankstown City.

Just turned 21 and most recently with Sydney Olympic for the last three years this midfielder is very fit, with a good appetite for work, as well as having a bite in the tackle and Watson also expects him to get among the goals this year.

Michael Vrankovic plays at sweeper or midfield and was recruited from Wollongong White Eagles and is another player Joe has re-established links with upon his embarking on a new path in his Super League coaching career.

Jason Falzon a midfield talent has been persuaded to move in as well after some years with Parramatta Eagles, while Darren Iocca and Sasha Talevski know that they will need to work much harder this year to command regular first team places as competition is likely to be fierce.

The latest news is that after a year on loan from Blacktown Jeff Suzor has been signed on a full time basis by the Bulls and will prove an asset in the side.

JASON BENNETT CHANGES HIS MIND AND JOINS THE DEMONS

Talking of Blacktown it was quite a coup for them to tempt Jason Bennett to rethink his retirement plans after leaving Easts at the end of last season. His decision may have had a lot to do with his long time friendship with Demon Stuart Cleary and new signing Matthew Lowe. All three played under John Kosmina at Warringah Dolphins and are now reunited.

Having a player of the calibre of Bennett in the side could mean fewer opportunities, ironically enough, for Cleary but perhaps a three pronged attack could yield dividends at the Gabbie as John Angelucci is sure to be the first name going down on the team sheet.

In other news from the north west, Adam Petey has been given a full transfer to Ryde City after being on loan last season and Rob Portelli has also moved over to the Gunners, where he will make his debut there this season. Long time defender Scott Ashton, out injured for a long period last year, is likely to play First Division football with Penrith City from now on, though this has not yet been confirmed.

The retirement of Pat Bradley, another Demon for many years, as well as Gary Van Egmond who is enjoying a coaching role at Northern Spirit and seems unlikely to play again, for the Demons at least has created the many spots for new players.

The release of Sarkis Boudaher was soon brought to the attention of Leichhardt Tigers coach Arno Bertogna and he looked set to be snapped up this week.

Parramatta Eagles new coach Roberto Viera has been satisfied with his club's trial form, the most recent a 3-0 defeat of Sutherland and an earlier game against a very skilful Korean club side.

For those interested in seeing a game tonight, (Thursday 11th) the Eagles take on a another powerful Korean side at Melita Stadium, the Hyundai Tigers with games at 6 and 8 pm.

Parramatta have been keen to see how new 20 year old signing John Olic shapes up after moving from Sydney United where Viera coached him at Under 16 level in the winter of 1997.

John and his brother Elvis, 18, who is with the Northern Spirit youth team, both impressed Roberto while he was at United, with the elder of the brothers now joining him at his new club.

"John plays in central midfield and has loads of potential. He will certainly be in my starting line up" announced the cheerful South American-born coach.
